

FASD Connect – December 2011

Supporting You...

Our Bristol Support Group has had to move their Christmas meeting to 21 January 2012. They will be having a post-Christmas party on this day from 2pm to 4.00pm. For more details contact Sasha at bristol@fasdtrust.co.uk.

We are delighted to welcome Sarah Evans as our new Regional Co-ordinator for Oxfordshire. Come along and meet Sarah on Saturday 4 February 2012 and find out what exciting plans she has for the group over the coming year. In the meantime, Sarah can be contacted at Oxford@fasdtrust.co.uk.

Our Surrey Group is going to meet on 17 December 2011 for a Christmas Party in Chertsey. For more information contact Emy at surrey@fasdtrust.co.uk.

Details of all our support groups can be found on our website, www.fasdtrust.co.uk.

Events & Resources

There are lots of other resources, news, etc on our website, but here is a small selection:

UK Medical Professionals Forum

The Forum was successfully launched in October 2011 with a two-day training event. Membership Forms for the Forum can be downloaded from our website. The next event, which is also open to non-members is on 24 February 2012, "Managing Difficult Behaviour in the FASD Child." More details and on-line bookings can be found here: <http://www.regonline.co.uk/builder/site/?eventid=1029013>

Training and Information Days

We are pleased to announce we are working with Kate Cairns Associates, to provide a series of one-day training courses on FASD. To book your place or find out more, please go to www.katecairns.com.

A Guide for Teachers

A specially written booklet for teachers on FASD and how to support the affected child in the classroom. £2 donation per copy is requested to help cover our admin costs. To order you copies, e-mail Sue at admin@fasdtrust.co.uk.

FASD, Foetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders, are a range of difficulties that a person is born with due to pre-natal alcohol exposure. The FASD Trust exists to provide support and information to those affected by FASD, to work with others to improve the support available to them and to increase awareness of FASD.
